IS A RACE-MIXER POISONING YOUR CHILD'S MIND?

MULTI-RACIAL EDUCATION is a grave threat to our children's future. White children in our inner cities are now frequently in a minority. About two-fifths of Inner London's 30,300 annual births are born to mothers who were born outside Britain.

In many other of our towns and cities it will not be long before Afro-Asian children are in a large majority.

Teachers are now being trained to encourage Afro-Asian children to be proud of their origins and cultures and to teach our children that to be White and British is a matter for shame.

A recent booklet by one Chris Proctor, aimed at student teachers, spells it out:

"We cannot allow racial prejudice to be propagated in schools, and persons whose attitudes and beliefs further such practices must apply themselves to a different profession."

LOOK MUM! WE'RE ASIANS NOW!

British boys and girls at Moreton School, Wolverhampton, were recently made to dress in Asian clothes during a project on the customs of India and the West Indies. "This is to help them with tolerance and understanding," gushed the school's 'Humanities' teacher.

"RACIST TEXTBOOKS"

He describes "racist textbooks" (i.e. those that give the slightest inkling of British achievement) as "very dangerous indeed."

Such books, he says, "often give the child the impression of himself as the Anglo-Saxon (superior) person completely apart and better than all other forms of humanity."

Multi-racial schools are undoubtedly holding back many of our British children as teachers struggle with language difficulties and the innate backwardness of many Immigrant children.

As far back as 1970 the Inner London Education Authority claimed that 28.5 per cent of Immigrants were poor readers compared with 14.8 per cent of native born children. These findings were confirmed in an ILEA survey conducted the following year.

Despite cuts in the overall educational budget, huge sums are spent on catering for the "special needs" of Afro-Asian pupils.

More sinister, reams are written and millions are spent on brainwashing our White children with "the ancient cultures of India, Africa and China" and in the "differing mores" of Immigrant cookery, dress, grooming, morals, sex and family life.

What of the religious education of our children?

Increasingly Christianity is taught only in the context of "comparative religion" in which our Christian heritage is presented as having no greater significance than a variety of alien religions and cults.

The 1944 Education Act lays it down that "the school day in every county and voluntary school shall begin with collective worship on the part of all pupils."

Today the law is openly flouted, with separate Moslem and Hindu assemblies in many schools, or in strange "ecumenical" services which "are not specifically Christian".

Holy Trinity Church of England Primary School in Bury, Lancs (where more than half the pupils are Moslem) is at the centre of a row because it does not conduct Moslem assemblies.

The school manageress points out that the school's trust deed only permits the teaching of the Christian religion. "It is the only school we know that refuses a Moslem assembly," say irate Moslem parents.

The mind boggles at recommendations such as those contained in an "authoritative" book Teaching in Multi-Racial Schools by David Hill. In it he writes:

"What can be taught depends on what one is teaching on general topics. For example: Mexico – the Azteco; India – Hinduism; Arabia – Islam. Common sense would suggest that Judaism (not a Christianised view), Hinduism, Islam and Sikhism will provide most of the content additional to Christianity.

In addition to this, Hill suggests:

HEATHEN CEREMONIES

"The teaching of Guatama; the Shin Byu ceremony of initiation; the life of Nankak; the five Ks and why Guru Gubind Singh introduced them; the Temple of Amritsar and the Amrit ceremony, the free kitchen and a Sikh wedding."

All this is for Christian children's enlightenment in "multi-faith" primary schools!

Hill advocates that "references to Islam must begin at five . . . Such references must be constantly present in the theses, topics and projects done by the children.

"Ramadan (Urdu Ramzan) and the Twoldds, Passover, Divali, Baisakhi and the birthday of Guruk Gobind Singh must have a place alongside Christmas in schools . . ."

Can our culture, our British way of life, withstand the indoctrination of our children with this crazy mish-mash of alien creeds, bizarre cults and initiation ceremonies?

The National Front's fight for national, racial and cultural survival must be taken into the schools before the minds and hearts of our children are damaged permanently and their birthright taken from them forever.

Black youngsters probably appreciate its 'Soul Culture' approach, but what do White children make of words like 'magga', 'riddim', 'Yout', 'arkse' and 'bredda'?

"What did you do at school today, Johnny?"

"Oh, dis, dat and de udder ting, Mumma!"

'ZIMBABWE': THE TORY "TRIUMPH" TURNS SOUR

AFTER only a few months of Black majority rule 'Zimbabwe' is a shambles and a civil war between tribal factions is imminent. Law and order, even in the cities has broken down. To large numbers of Black 'Zimbabweans' freedom means no work, no bosses and grabbing whatever takes your fancy, especially if it is White man's property. Homes and shops are looted and the now mainly Black led Police shrug their shoulders. Little wonder that 80,000 Whites have already fled the country.

White ruled Rhodesia, despite an international trade boycott, was one of the most prosperous and stable nations in Africa. Its huge grain surplus fed the starving multitudes of Zambia, the Congo, Malawi and other "liberated" central African states. But now the people of those states and the people of 'Zimbabwe' face famine. "Freedom" means no ploughing, no planting – and no harvest.

All this was predictable. We predicted it. Everything that has happened and is about to happen in 'Zimbabwe' supports our contention that Black people in Africa are totally incapable of managing the states they have taken over.

Let us hope 'Zimbabwe's' fate will serve as a warning to Whites in South Africa who are tempted to experiment with multi-racialism.

NF News seeks to persuade its readers to feel angry about the evils of multi-racialism and to direct their anger solely at the corrupt politicians who created a racial problem in Britain, and not to the Immigrant people in general. "Racialism" is NOT unlawful – only "racial hatred"

BANKRUPTCY BOOM

BRITISH industry is already going bankrupt faster than at any time since 1974, and it is still getting worse. The rate at which firms are failing has been continually rising since mid-1977 and is now reaching record levels.

In the first three months of 1970, 1,488 firms were forced into liquidation, a rise of over 29% on the same period last year. The worst hit are our main manufacturing industries.

Failures of engineering firms are up an astonishing 96%. The number of electronic firms going bankrupt is up by 175%. In the textile industry the figure is 102%. Amongst clothing manufacturers it is 192%, and for builders it is 36%.

Besides this incredible rise in the number of firms disappearing with the consequent loss of jobs, many more are being forced onto 3-day, 2-day, or even 1-day weeks, while others are imposing extended summer shut-downs.

Far from 'bottoming-out', the situation shows every sign of becoming worse. A spokesman for Trade Indemnity stated:

"We see no indication that there will be any slowing of the momentum now, and we can't see that a 1% cut in Minimum Lending Rate is likely to make much difference."

If current trends do continue, then this year a total of over 6,500 firms will go into liquidation, compared to the previous peak in 1976 of 4,537.

The Internationalist policies of Margaret Thatcher's Government are rapidly destroying the very basis of the industrial structure of this country.

Many of these firms supplied components or parts for other companies which will now have to import them from abroad at prices that will make their products uncompetitive.

The end result of this collapse will be the ever lengthening of unemployment queues which our youngsters will have to join.

This situation could not then be remedied by an improvement in the World economy, as Britain will no longer have the industry to take advantage of any such change.

Only by a policy of economic nationalism, by stopping foreign imports, and by encouraging our smaller and medium sized businesses can the industries of this country begin to revive.

'Loyalty to the cause must come first'-Andrew Brons

AN ENTHUSIASTIC and loyal welcome was given to NF National Directorate members by 300 members who attended a rally at the Elephant & Castle, South London, on Friday 11th July.

The rally was intended for South London members, but delegations of NF loyalists from branches in Kent and North and East London joined the crowd. The atmosphere was electric.

NF Chairman Andrew Brons won warm applause when he declared:

"Of course we must value loyalty – and personal loyalty is a fine thing as long as it does not compete with loyalty to the party and to our Cause.

"But the day that I make an appeal to you for personal loyalty outside the framework of our Constitution and our Cause is the day you must kick me out of the Chairmanship!"

Mr. Brons went on to speak of the need for the NF to counter-attack against the party's political enemies, the media and the functionaries of the state who seek to intimidate the NF out of existence.

"These people think that by applying pressures of various kinds against individual NF members those members will find it inconvenient to remain with the NF.

"Well we must devise and put into effect ways and means of showing these bullies that it can be very inconvenient for them to harrass NF members. If necessary, we will bring home that message to them at their own homes!"

Other platform speakers were Richard Verrall, NF Deputy-Chairman; National Activities Organiser Martin Webster and NF Directorate member Michael Salt. Meeting Chairman was Jim Sneath, SE London Regional Agent.

Martin Webster took a 'Dutch Auction' collection which raised nearly £560 – the firmest possible evidence of high NF morale!

S.W.P. KNIFEMAN CONVICTED

RAYMOND ELLIS, 22, of Broadlands Avenue, Hockley, Essex, is one of those Socialist Workers' Party members who fancies himself as a 'Street Fighting Man'.

In September, 1977, he led a mob of thugs in Leigh, near Southend which attacked NF members walking to a meeting to be addressed by NF National Activities Organiser Martin Webster.

Later he prattled to the local News-Observer (23.9.77) that his 'demonstration' was a "tremendous success".

Now the vicious twerp is making news again. The Southend Evening Echo (2.6.80) reported his conviction for carrying a knife. When arrested he told the Police:

"I usually carry a knife, or else a cut-throat razor."

The Judge in the case stated that: "Ugly scenes involving knives are now common . . . offences of this kind are on the increase. The public have to be protected."

Despite this, Ellis was given a conditional discharge.

(The Judge's name was Weisman.)

LETTER

Dear Sir,

Mr. John Tyndall was quite wrong to attack the young people who support the National Front. His comments about our youngsters are based on a mixture of lower middle class snobbery and a desire to find any excuse to make criticisms of the party.

We should not discourage young people from coming on our marches just because Mr. Tyndall does not like the haircuts or other fashions which young people go in for. Our party needs the support of all the people it can get, young or old, and no matter what their 'class' is.

I think that we should be delighted that so many young people identify with the NF these days. If there are not as big a proportion of middle-aged "respectable" people on our marches compared to a few years ago it is because the going has got rougher – but that is a reason why we should be pleased that the youngsters are willing to turn out.

I would also like to point out that our youngsters not only turn out for marches. They also work very hard for the party in other ways.

I have been working to develop the facilities at Excalibur House – painting, decorating, plastering and clearing up. We could only have done the work that has been done in the last few months as a result of large numbers of young people turning up night after night and at weekends to get the jobs done unpaid.

If Mr. Tyndall worked for the party as hard as these youngsters have done during the years when he was paid to do so, then the party might be in a better position. But the fact is that we were lucky to see him at Excalibur House more than two afternoons a week! I do not call that setting a good example.

I call on all adult members of the party not to turn their noses up at our young supporters, but to turn out on our activities themselves to encourage and guide them. We need the young people because the NF is the party of the future. We do not need petty snobbery.

I now see that Mr. Tyndall has left the NF with his father-in-law to form the "Parker Party". What a reward for the loyalty and hard work of our young members!

Yours sincerely,

Derrick Day,
Chairman, Hackney Branch, NF

Norwegian Nationalist Leader says: "Britain's NF is our inspiration!"

"BRITAIN'S National Front is our inspiration" was one of the themes of a speech given by Erik Blücher, Chairman of the Nasjonalt Folkeparti (National People's Party) of Norway, at a meeting of Lambeth NF Branch on 2nd July.

"Ideologically the Norwegian NF is identical to Britain's NF. This is because the NF has the right policies and has, by its growth and activities, served as an inspiration to White nationalists all over the world."

Turning to the situation in Norway, Mr. Blücher said:

"Most people outside Norway think that Norway is very democratic with nordic racial solidarity and no nationalist movement. In fact we have an Immigration problem, a repressive political Establishment and a Nationalist movement.

"Norway has a population of about 4 million. There are now 80,000 foreign workers, and of these 30,000 are Coloured. Despite our North Sea Oil income we have a grave housing shortage and nearly 50,000 people are unemployed.

"At the moment we have a 'Labour' government which operates a phoney Immigration 'control' policy. But the 'Liberals' and 'Tories' are expected to win the next election. I believe they will open the Immigrant floodgates wide again."

Mr. Blücher said that in a recent Gallup poll 65 per cent of Norwegians wanted all foreigners out and almost 90 per cent wanted a halt to all further Immigration.

HARRASSMENT

"It is because of this," he said, "that the Establishment fears the development of a racial-Nationalist party able to tap public feelings on the race issue. Therefore our NF is met by the kind of harrassment that the NF here in Britain has to contend with.

"When our party was formed in 1975, about 800 Communists attacked our meeting, injuring many people and causing £5,000 worth of damage. The Police stood back and allowed the Reds to do as they pleased. Several 'Labour' newspapers condoned this violence.

"Two of our young members lost their jobs on the subway because of union victimisation. They took their case before the local court, then the High Court, and won both times.

"But when the case finally went before the Supreme Court they lost because the judges in that court are appointed by the Government of the day, which at the moment is 'Labour'.

"To punish our two members for daring to take the matter to Court the Unions have seen to it that they have not been able to get any job for the past five years."

Mr. Blücher also detailed the victimisation of another Norwegian NF patriot, Olav Hoaas.

Mr. Hoaas, a teacher, has written books on race and Immigration and has told journalists that he would like to see all Jews deported from Norway along with other foreigners and that he believes the 'Holocaust' of 'Six Million Jews' story to be a Zionist propaganda hoax.

"As a result of this," said Mr. Blücher, "five leading 'Norwegian' Jews demanded that Mr. Hoaas be prosecuted under the Norwegian version of the Race Relations Act. He was prosecuted – but not for his views on the 'Holocaust', but for expressing a wish to deport all Jews from Norway.

ZIONIST LIES

"He was given a 90 day suspended jail sentence, but this was commuted to a £500 fine. But he refuses to be silenced. He continues to write books exposing Zionist lies, and persists in giving frank interviews to journalists.

"In revenge, the Government has sacked him from his teaching post even though it was admitted that he never introduced his political views into the classroom."

Mr. Blücher explained that though the Jews are few in number in Norway, they had great influence:

"The editors of three of Norway's most influential newspapers are married to Jewesses – and one of the editors is believed to be Jewish himself.

"The 'Labour' government has admitted that the foreign embassy it deals with most is Israel's. Of the 155 members of Parliament, 105 are member of the 'Friends of Israel' organisation."

GROWING STEADILY

Mr. Blücher concluded by saying: "Establishment, Communist and Zionist intimidation will not stop us. We are growing steadily and already we publish a bi-weekly newspaper, The Nationalist.

"There is an entry for the Nasjonalt Folkeparti in a recently-published left-wing political encyclopaedia. It says: 'It is still small, but it has amazing and frightening potential'."

"THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF LAMBETH"— WHERE REDS RULE AND BLACKS COME FIRST

CAN YOU IMAGINE what the whole of Britain would be like in 20 years' time after a Communist take-over and after the Immigrant population had continued to grow at its present rate?

If you can't picture such a nightmare, then go and visit the London Borough of Lambeth and look around.

The leader of the 'Labour' controlled Council is Cllr. Ted Knight – known as 'Red Ted' because he is a self-proclaimed Marxist.

In 1978 the Council allowed the Socialist Workers' Party controlled Anti-Nazi League to hold a 'Carnival' in Brockwell Park – and spent £6,000 of ratepayers' money subsidising the event.

The Council provides a 'Community Resource Centre' which is used as a base for the activities of scores of violent extremist Marxist, Immigrant and Irish Republican groups.

CORRUPTION

In 1977 the Council subsidised Community Relations Committee spent hundreds of pounds posting out leaflets urging support for the violent anti-National Front demonstration at Lewisham.

Communist subversion to one side, the biggest problem Lambeth faces is the race problem. Because of it the borough faces bankruptcy and chaos.

Already more than 30 per cent of the births in the borough are to Immigrant mothers. The illegitimacy rate among some groups of Immigrants is nearly five times that of the rate of Whites.

Because of this Council-run children's homes are overflowing with Black children, and the Council is facing increasing difficulty in finding foster homes for them.

In an effort to solve this problem, the Council's Social Services Department is buying advertising space in local newspapers all over the country appealing for foster parents.

Advertisements in newspapers which circulate in South London (such as the one we reproduce) show pictures of Black children. But advertisements in papers circulating in rural non multi-racial areas often show White children.

A couple of months ago an advertisement showing White children was published in the Chichester Observer.

Two NF supporters, a Mr. & Mrs. Richardson, wrote off for further particulars of the fostering scheme, but specified that they were unable to accept any backward or non-White children. The reply from the Social Services Department stated:

"It is unlikely that we have any children suitable for you."

The official who signed that letter was Ms. Jenny Weinstein. Ms. Weinstein is the Organiser of the Wandsworth Branches of both the Socialist Workers' Party and the Anti-Nazi League.

Ms. Weinstein's letter can be taken two ways: either the Council has nothing but backward and/or Black children on offer; or non-backward White children were denied an opportunity of being fostered because Ms. Weinstein resented the Richardsons' stipulations.

Of the 12 unemployed youngsters taken on by Lambeth Council in a jobs creation scheme, 10 were Black.

"POSITIVE DISCRIMINATION"

If you wish to join Ms. Weinstein as an employee of Lambeth Council, you would do well to scan the pages of the West Indian World.

In just one issue of the West Indian World recently there was nearly a full page devoted to a Lambeth Council advertisement detailing vacancies. Among these were:

Four "Housing Welfare Officers (Ethnic)" at £5,994/£6,510 p.a.; an "Assistant Manager of Amenity Services" at £5,897/£6,510 p.a.; and a "Clerical Assistant" at £4,700 plus 5 weeks' holiday.

In spring 1979 Lambeth Council did its bit towards the national "Jobs Creation Scheme" for unemployed school leavers. It took on 12 young people to learn various clerical skills at the Town Hall.

As our photograph of the inductees shows, 10 of the 12 lucky youngsters were Black . . . 83 per cent!

While the Black population of Lambeth is huge, it is nowhere near 83 per cent, and we doubt if anything like 83 per cent of the total number of unemployed young people in Lambeth are Black.

But perhaps these youngsters were the best qualified unemployed young people in the borough when tested for their clerical aptitude . . . or perhaps their selection was another example of anti-White "positive discrimination" at work.

Earlier this year Lambeth Council announced a Rates increase of 49.9 per cent – the highest in Britain.

HELICOPTER PETAL SCATTERING PRECEDES SWAMI'S ELEPHANT RIDE THROUGH NEASDEN TO TEMPLE

His Divine Holiness on a courtesy call to the Chief Rabbi.

HIS HOLINESS the Pope has set a trend for globe-trotting religious pageantry which has caused other world religious leaders to gad about the world doing their thing.

We refer in particular to the leader of 35 million Hindus His Divine Holiness Shree Pramukh Swami, head of the Swaminarayan Hindu Mission.

During July His Divine Holiness paid a visit to Britain to minister to his hundreds of thousands (millions?) of followers here.

Naturally he paid a few courtesy calls. Among these was a visit to Church House, Westminster, the offices of the Church of England.

All female staff were ordered out of the building during his visit as His Divinity may not gaze upon the female form. (What Dr. Una Kroll and other military C. of E. 'feminists' thought of that has not been reported!)

FAWNING ATTENDANCE

His Divinity held a service at the Albert Hall for 6,000 Hindus. Among those in fawning attendance was the 'Right Wing' Tory MP for Brent North Mr. Rhodes Boyson (it certainly made a change from all those Jewish functions he attends!).

At a reception after the service Mr. Boyson, hungry for the votes of all the Hindus living in his constituency spoke very movingly of "the important work the Swaminarayan Hindu Mission does in this country to help race relations and to welcome newly-arrived Immigrants."

Highlight of His Divinity's tour came on Sunday 20th July when he made what was described as "an epic tour" on an elephant through Wembley and Neasden in the Borough of Brent in order to lay the foundation stone of the biggest Hindu temple in Europe.

On an "anything the Pope can do, I can do better!" basis, His Holiness began the day by flying in a helicopter over the processional route scattering petals.

The Divine litterbug then made his way to Alperton High Street where he climbed on the back of a huge painted elephant and led a vast two hour procession to Meadow Garth where the temple is being built.

Next month His Supreme Deitude M'Bugga M'Bugga, spiritual leader of 100 million Voodoo cannibals, will ride in state through Belgravia on an albino hippopotamus before setting up a "mission kitchen" in Hyde Park.

The Archbishop of Canterbury is said to be a trifle apprehensive about accepting an "ecumenical luncheon" invitation from this saintly, but hungry, prophet.

PRESS COUNCIL REFUSES TO HEAR NF COMPLAINT

THE PRESS COUNCIL is widely believed to be an independent body to which members of the public can turn for justice if they have been unfairly treated by a newspaper.

Because the mass media has long been engaged in a propaganda war against the National Front, the NF's Publicity Department has made numerous documented complaints to the Press Council concerning instances of disgraceful conduct by the Press for adjudication.

Out of hundreds of complaints over the years, the NF has only won two or three cases; for the rest the NF has been treated with what can only be described as judicial mockery.

But recently the Press Council has devised a new ploy to try and discourage the NF from registering complaints: it simply refuses to adjudicate on them.

The reason for this tactic is as follows:

When one makes a complaint, the Council's permanent staff prepares a statement on the case based (presumably) on the text of the complaint and on a statement of reply from the newspaper concerned.

But the complainant cannot make the complaint in person to the Council's Complaints Committee and cannot see the written statement of the case prepared by the Council's staff.

Such a procedure is open to every suspicion. It is contrary to the basic idea of British justice that justice must not only be done, but be seen to be done.

After the Press Council Complaints Committee arrives at an adjudication it issues the text of its judgement to the entire press. The paper concerned in the complaint is morally obliged to publish the judgement in full.

"PERVERSE" JUDGEMENTS

Press Council statements of adjudication have to include an account of the complaint whether or not the complaint is upheld.

Consequently, anyone with a bit of acumen can see if a Press Council's adjudication is "perverse" in relation to the facts.

In refusing to adjudicate on NF complaints the Press Council relieves itself of the embarrassment of having to arrive at and then place on public record its "perverse" judgements.

An example of this new technique was seen in the case of an NF complaint against the News of the World.

On 16th September, 1979, this gutter rag printed a story in which disgruntled former NF Deputy-Chairman Andrew Fountaine advanced bogus and defamatory reasons for falling out with the National Front. The report was written by Ron 'Mount' (Berg).

Next week 'Mount' produced a further story, including the words: "a hastily-called tribunal . . . had ordered the expulsion of the ex-Naval Commander Andrew Fountaine . . ."

The story said that the disciplinary move had been prompted by Fountaine's statements in the previous week's article. It quoted Fountaine as saying that his expulsion was "just a cheap trick" to distort the NF leadership elections.

"NF's SIDE OF THE STORY"

The important point is that before publishing these lies 'Mount' telephoned NF Head Office and spoke to Richard Verrall "to get the NF's side of the story."

He was told that Fountaine had not been expelled by a "hastily-called" tribunal. Fountaine had been charged with offences and a Tribunal set up on 29th July, 1979. All of the charges related to actions prior to that date.

'Mount' was also told that the only reason why the Tribunal did not convene until September was because Fountaine refused to agree to a date for the hearing.

After having obtained these facts prior to publication, not a mention was made of them in the story 'Mount' produced.

In addition to this, after the publication of the story a member of the Tribunal which dealt with Fountaine's case, Mr. Malcolm Skeggs, wrote to the News of the World correcting the falsehoods it had published.

Not only did the News of the World not publish Mr. Skeggs' letter of correction, it went on to publish a further story reiterating its previously published lies!

OPEN-AND-SHUT

There could hardly have been a more open-and-shut case of deliberate lying by a newspaper for the Press Council to rule upon.

When the NF submitted its complaint it included a copy of a High Court affidavit sworn by the chairman of the Tribunal, Mr. Michael Cowley, which detailed the exact circumstances of Fountaine's expulsion from the party.

In the face of such an overwhelming case the Press Council trundled out their new device. In a letter dated 5th June 1980 they said:

"The Committee decided that you failed to establish a case warranting adjudication by the Council . . ."

When the Press Council refuses to adjudicate on a complaint no statement is issued to the Press, therefore nothing is published in the Press about the matter. The Council advances no criteria and displays no observable standards to justify their decision.

Thus, behind closed doors and by means of secret processes, the Press Council acted to shield the News of the World from evidence that it publishes deliberate lies about the NF.

Such an approach to justice from a quasi-judicial body whose Chairman, Mr. Patrick Neil, QC, is an Officer of the High Court, is strange indeed.

This same tactic of refusing to adjudicate on a complaint from the NF has been used to protect the Jewish Chronicle from exposure. Details of that case will be given in our next issue.

The NF Publicity Department will not be discouraged from maintaining its campaign against media lies. We keep a file on every complaint we have made, because one day there is going to be a reckoning.

'A FEW HUNDRED' NF MARCHERS FILL PARK LANE

MORE THAN 2,000 NF members and supporters thronged the West End of London on Sunday, June 15th in a march against the presence in Britain of thousands of Iranians and the immigration of Libyan fanatics and murderers.

As reported in NF News recently, Britain is currently playing host to half a million Iranians alone.

The huge NF turnout was deliberately played down in subsequent press accounts. Some BBC reports referred to "only a few hundred" NF marchers. But as our picture shows, the march filled Park Lane from end to end, with as many as eight and twelve abreast towards the rear of the column.

Led by NF Chairman Andrew Brons and the magnificent new NW England Regional Drum Corps, the column started from Marble Arch, moved down Park Lane (waves from Bunnie Girls at the windows of the Playboy Club!) and past the Horseguards Barracks at Knightsbridge (watched by sympathetic young soldiers) to South Kensington.

Once again hundreds of youngsters joined the march, all of them very well behaved despite provocation from a scruffy assortment of communists slouching along the pavements. There were only 2 people arrested, neither of them NF supporters.

As the NF column passed the burnt-out Iranian Embassy at Princes Gate, a cloudburst had the marchers good-humouredly chanting "Irrigation – No!" and "Singing In The Rain" as they filed into Prince Consort Road for an open-air rally.

The downpour at the start of the rally and the pounding of the drums created a special atmosphere of solidarity and defiance as the marchers applauded speeches by Martin Webster, Richard Verrall and NF Chairman Andrew Brons.

GUARDIAN SABOTAGE BID FAILS

"A COLLECTIVE decision" by Guardian journalists to try and sabotage an NF Press Conference held on Monday 14th July to launch the publication of NF Evidence on Public Order failed.

Copies of the booklet were issued to newspapers in advance of publication day under an "embargo" so as to give journalists assigned to attend the press conference time to study its contents and prepare their questions.

When pre-publication copies of a book are issued under an "embargo" it means (by long-established tradition) that no reports of it may be published prior to a time and date specified by the publisher.

Journalists of The Guardian, having studied the booklet, realised that it definitively exposed the Left Wing campaign of violence and Establishment repression against the NF.

They decided to try and undermine the news value of the NF Press Conference by breaking the "embargo" and publishing a report on the morning of the day the conference was set to take place.

This ploy failed, however. Post-publication reports were carried in The Times, Thames TV News, LBC Radio, the South London Press, and a number of weekly magazines and provincial daily papers.

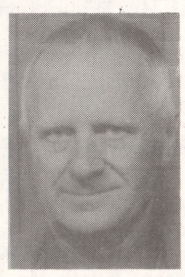
HELP THIS PATRIOT!

GEORGE SMITH was peacefully selling NF News in Leyton High Road in February 1979 when he and his friends were attacked by an SWP gang.



The Police arrived during the fracas and arrested 52 year old Mr. Smith (right). This unjust arrest upset him and he struggled to get free from the PCs who were manhandling him.

Last month he was convicted of "obstruction", "assault on a PC" and "criminal damage to a PC's watch" and fined £170.

Please send donations to his fine fund to Waltham Forest NF, c/o NF News.

LANE BARRACKED IN SUTTON

SHOUTS of "White Traitor" and "We don't want you in Sutton" greeted David Lane, Chairman of the Commission for Racial Equality, guest speaker at a meeting to set up a Community Relations Council in Sutton on 12th June.

The organisers of the meeting, held in Sutton Public Hall, were delighted at the attendance – but became less delighted when they realised that many of the audience were members of the National Front.

David Lane was heckled continuously throughout his speech with one woman shouting: "We want a White Society – we want it for ourselves!" After NF members and supporters left, only a handful of people remained in the meeting.

Attempts to set up a Community Relations Council in Sutton are encountering difficulties as even local MPs and other dignitaries are refusing to become associated with it.

WARRINGTON RACE DEMO

WARRINGTON was the scene of the latest 'local' march organised by the National Front's North-West of England Regional Council.

The theme of the march was "Stop Immigration – Start Repatriation!" 150 NF members, led by the NW of England NF Drum Corps and a Union Jack Colour Party, marched through the centre of the town on Saturday 5th July.

About 300 Communist and Immigrant troublemakers were ferried in from all over the North of England, but they met with no success.

Vociferous support for the NF marchers from shoppers in the High Street, plus effective Police work, so demoralised the Red hooligans that they only managed to create enough trouble to get one of their number arrested.

After the march was over an open-air rally was held at which the main speaker was NF Chairman Andrew Brons.

Other platform speakers included NF National Directorate members David Riley (NW England Regional Agent) and Carole Neil (E. Midlands Regional Agent). Warrington Group Organiser Alan Fletcher was Chairman.
